

Chap. 10.

With all this knowledge of Mr . E –
& with this power of ^{authority to} imparting it Anne ~~quitted~~ ^{left} Westgate Build^{gs} – her mind deeply busy in revolving what she had heard, feeling, thinking, recalling & forseeing everything, shocked ~~about~~ ^{at by what} ~~Mr. Elliot,~~ ^{she had heard about} Mr Elliot – , sighing over future Kellynch and ~~pained for Lady Rufsell,~~ ^{& greiving with} ~~& glancing with~~ ~~complacency or triumphing with concern~~ ~~composed Complacency & Lenient Triumph~~
~~that Events should only now have shown her~~ ~~upon the fact of her having been~~ ~~right & Lady R[^] herself wrong,~~ ~~the most dis:~~ ~~criminating of the two. She had never~~ ~~been satisfied. Lady Rufsell's~~ ^{^whose} confidence in him [^]had been entire. – ~~But [t]~~The Embarras:
:ment which must be felt from this ~~moment~~ ^{hour} in his presence! – How to be:
:have to him? – how to get rid of him? –
What to do by any of the Party at home? – where to be blind? – where to be active? – It was altogether ac onfusion of Images & Doubts – a perplexity, an ~~Embarrasment~~ ^{Agitation} which she could not see the end of it ---
And she was in Gay St - – & still so ~~far~~ ^{much} engrossed, ~~as to start at~~ ^{that she started on} being addressed by Adm^l . Croft, as if ^{he} were a person unlikely to be met there.
